

This conference met my expectations

For my work, the conference was

One highlight of the conference was

Sr Mary

Inspiring network of people

The introductory interview with Sr Mary John!! You're a marvel! :)

The sharing among the participants

Inspiring work being done around the world

The presentation of the history of cameco with the former directors

Two of the three sub-meetings I attended

Looking new ways to communicate

The opening plenary with Sr Mary John... no nun-Sense!

One highlight of the conference was

Networking

To hear about different subjects

The celebration of the 50 years of cameco

To let marginalized express their needs

Nun-Sense!

Sharing ideas, meeting who matter - for a better world

Se Mary John

More attention to social media, digital rights and freedom of expression needed. Provide safe spaces for free expression and counter narratives.

dissertation boss

One highlight of the conference was the various topics of the workshop

The discussion on what can the church do to defend Human Rights in the digital age

The music

One aspect I missed was

None

Mir professionals from the different members

How can we access the photos? 😊

Concret proposals for the future

Not enough bananas.

More space to discuss role of media in populist and repressive environments

Inclusion of the ' marginalised 'in person...

To stay together in the same place in order to share more.

Time

One aspect I missed was

I am glad how the Conference developed and hope for a fruitful follow-up
